GASO-ELECTRIC BLAIR BUS MAY REVOLUTIONIZE MOTOR INDUSTRY, SAY THE EXPERTS

Principle May be Applied to Pleasure Cars as Well as to Auto Trucks, Says the Inventor

BIG FINANCIAL INTERESTS "SIT UP AND TAKE NOTICE"

Newark Man Invents Motor Vehicle That is Virtually An Electric Street Car On Rubber Tires—Capital Stock of Blair Company Has Just Been Increased.

Experts believe that a Newark man has revolutionized the motor vehicle industry.

The result of the investigation and the work of the experts has attracted big financial interests and Newark promises to play an important part in the motor world.

Almost like a novel is the story of how recognition came to genius, when the clouds apparently hung heavy.

Frank M. Blair is the modest man, who has stirred the interest of motorists.

The strange part of the development is that Mr. Blair and his friends discovered the value of what secure control, but Cincinnati parties had sent experts East and today closed options for financing the enterprise and for a full development of the proposition.

Evidence of the interest aroused may be gained from the statement that yesterday the representative of New York and Philadelphia interests was Newark to get information for an offer for one hundred big gaso-electric busses. The New York interests recognize not only the reduced cost of operation, but the great saving in having a mechanism that will enable stops at every corner without changing gears, and ability to get speed quickly, where this is possible.

Express companies and trucking concerns operating trucks making frequent stops have resorted to expensive storage battery construction to secure this desired feature of operation, and inquiries have already come from this source for the new appliance.

When seen by an Advocate man this morning Mr. Blair said:

"Of course I am pleased at the development but I am not surprised. The principle was bound to be recognized sometime. I have been asked if the gaso-electric attachment used so successfully on the big bus can be used on small trucks and pleasure cars. To this my answer is that there is not the slightest doubt and of course this is well known to the electrical experts, who have been at work. Permit me to say in this connection that the electrical engineer, who took up this matter and who has rendered a written report, which is in the hands of the Cincinnati men interested is one of the foremost in this country, and is the chief engineer of an electrical concern known all over the world. The mechanical engineers were also men of wide reputation."

When Mr. Blair proposed to build a direct drive worm gear truck a little over three years ago vehicle men pronounced the scheme impractical because it was revolutionary. The Blair truck, however, has proved to be a mechanical wonder. Forty Blair trucks widely separated are now in operation under various conditions and every one has proved to be a success. Nobody knows this better than do Newark people who for over three years have watched the successful performance of the Blair trucks in Newark by Fleck & Neal, Harry Bailey, Harry Burkham, Alexandria Creamery Company, Freedom Oil Company and others. After the flood of 1913 a Blair truck was the first vehicle of any kind that was able to get over the rough road to Zanesville.

A few months ago the Blair Company built a bus similar to the large French chain driven busses used on the Fifth Avenue line in New York City. This bus was taken East to one of the greatest electrical appliance companies in the world, and the discovery was made that because of the sub-frame and direct drive, that the long sought for solution of a big problem had been found. The electrical company attached the generator and motor and the big bus seating fifty people has been demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of experts.

The operation of the big car is almost uncanny in ease of operation and lack of noise. It moves away on the start just the same as an electric coupe and can be stopped without a jar, or proceeds at any special speed desired by simply giving it more "juice." Before being sent to the east this car was seen on the Newark streets as a gasoline bus but in an eastern factory the electrical equipment was added, virtually making it an electric street car on rubber tires.

When the demonstration was made in the East efforts were made to

MESSAGE FROM GERMAN EMPEROR.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Berlin, via London, Feb. 18.—The president of the province of East Prussia, at Koenigsberg, has received the following telegram from Emperor William who has been on the eastern battle front:
"The Russians are completely beaten. Our beloved East Prussia is free from the enemy."

FRENCH REPORT ON PROGRESS OF THE FIGHTING

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Paris, Feb. 18.—The French war office this afternoon issued a report on the progress of the war which reads as follows:

"From the sea to the Oise nothing new was recorded last night."

"It has been confirmed that the successful surprise movement which made us master of the two lines of German trenches to the north of Arras, northwest of Roincourt, inflicted heavy losses on the enemy. We captured a bomb thrower and several hundred bombs."

"In the valley of the Aisne and in the section of Reims there have been artillery engagements in which our batteries have distinctly the advantage."

REVOLT AMONG HINDU SOLDIERS AT SINGAPORE

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Tokio, Feb. 18.—A revolt has broken out among the Hindu soldiers at Singapore, one of the Straits Settlements, belonging to Great Britain, according to newspaper dispatches received here today from the Malay archipelago.

Marines were landed at Singapore from Japanese and French warships and some fighting has taken place between the mutineers and the men from the war vessels.

The Hindu mutineers numbered eight hundred but later half of this number is reported to have surrendered and the revolt is said to be subsiding.

WILL NOT CALL EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Washington, Feb. 18.—President Wilson has virtually decided not to call an extra session of congress on March 5, no matter what the fate of the ship bill.

No official announcement of his intention was made, but in congressional quarters it is well understood that the work was begun today on mapping out the details of the president's trip to the San Francisco exposition. That was taken as added evidence that there will be no extra session. It was reiterated at the white house that the president still was hopeful of getting the ship bill through at the present session.

14 GENERALS GO ON BRIGADE RESERVE LIST

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Paris, Feb. 18.—Fourteen generals of brigade have been transferred to the reserve list by General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, in addition to the nine generals of division whose transfer was announced yesterday.

The vacancies in brigade commands will be filled by younger men. Among those promoted is Count Edouard de MacMahon, son of the former president of France, who has been a colonel of infantry.

American Shipping In Danger In the War Zone by Germany's Threat of Submarine Warfare

New Photograph of the Khedive of Egypt.

This is the most recent photograph of the new khedive of Egypt just placed on the throne by the British government. The failure of the Turkish forces, which had threatened to cross the Red Sea, leaves him secure in his new place. The old khedive has sided with Turkey in the great war, and he has had to quit his throne. For weeks the Turks threatened to march on Egypt and unseat the new khedive. A few days ago the delay was blamed on the fact that the old ruler found it necessary to go to Berne, Switzerland, for a surgical operation. Now, however, it has been admitted that the expedition will amount to nothing.

Here Are Facts Concerning The Subway Bond Sale Story

Editor Advocate:—In your last evening issue I read that the legality of the subway bond sale is questioned by the bond buyers because the city auditor had had the bond sale advertised only once instead of four times in the city newspapers. In this connection the paper stated that there had been some discussion of the advisability of selling the $240,000 subway bonds when the possibility of starting the work is remote. Please tell us why this statement was printed in your paper.

SOUTH SIDE CITIZEN.

This matter was printed as an item of news of interest alike to friends and opponents of the proposed subway. Solicitor Norpell admitted that he had no idea when the railroads and the city would get together for an agreement upon the question of starting the work. He originally set the date of meeting as February 1. The railroads advised the city that this would be too early for the meeting and said they would notify the city when they were ready. This notification had not been received Wednesday when the Advocate talked with Solicitor Norpell.

The Advocate has always boasted the subway. Reference to the files of this paper in the past will prove this assertion. But that is no reason why this paper should withhold any item of news connected with the matter. The legality of the bond sale is questioned. City Auditor Dodd in a conversation with the Advocate Wednesday stated that the legality of the advertisement was questioned by the representative of Otis & Co., of Cleveland, bond buyers, one of the bidders present when the bids were opened. The Advocate was advised by one of the leading bankers and by a bond buyer that the legality of the advertisement was open to question, and this newspaper investigated the matter. No one-sided account of the affair was given and no trouble was spared to get both sides of the question. City Auditor Dodd, Solicitor Norpell and others interested were interviewed. The matter was discussed with those familiar with such matters.

Finally in an effort to get an authorized statement, the Advocate called by long distance 'phone yesterday afternoon, Attorney Frank Shaffer, of Cincinnati, of the firm of Peck, Shaffer & Peck, counsel for many bond buyers and experts on bond issues. Mr. Shaffer refused to either confirm or deny the legality of the sale of bonds. He said he was not in position to discuss the matter.

The Advocate felt and still feels that the information contained in the story was of news value and it was printed for that reason only.

The information was discussed freely in financial and business circles Wednesday. Auditor Dodd told the Advocate Wednesday morning that it had come to his attention. It was being discussed among business and financial men and there was no reason whatever why the information should not be given to Advocate readers.

In spite of the story, the subway construction will come just as quickly, no doubt, and if the story has any effect at all it will assure that the work will not be held up through any possible legal or technical delay. It is folly to attribute to this newspaper any desire to delay the subway construction. The will of the people should be obeyed. The people voted for the subway and the subway should and will be built. The city and the railway companies should get together and effect an agreement for beginning work. As soon as that is done very little time should be required to issue and sell the city's bonds if the contention made by some of the bond dealers that the recent bond sale advertising was illegal is true. The Advocate though favoring the subway construction will not under any circumstances smother any legitimate news development concerning the matter.

The friends and the foes of the subway may depend upon this newspaper to give them the facts from day to day as developments warrant.

Time Limit On Enforcement of Proclamation Expired Last Midnight and All Merchant Ships In British Waters Are Now In Danger

GREAT BRITAIN DENIES UNDULY DETAINING SHIPS

Note to Government at Washington Says Depression of Commerce Should Be Sought Elsewhere Than In Activities of British Fleet—Will Retaliate Against Germany's Submarine Campaign—Germany's Reply to Protest of the United States Couched In Friendly Terms.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
London, Feb. 18.—The blockade of the United Kingdom by Germany is on, for with the dawn of Feb. 18, there went into effect the German notice warning neutral shipping to avoid British waters.

What will be the effect of this declaration will take a day or two to demonstrate. British shipping interests profess to feel no alarm; nevertheless, all passenger traffic from England to Holland has been tied up. The lines to Scandinavia are still continuing to run. The cross channel services have announced their schedules will be maintained as usual.

In the meantime, the British public is perusing the German note answering the American communication concerning the war zone blockade. It perceives no yielding on the part of the imperial government, and it now awaits the pronouncement of Great Britain's expected retaliatory campaign.

Just as the countryside was placarded with descriptions and cuts of the British and German aircraft when air raids were uppermost in the public mind, illustrations showing British and German submarines are now being distributed to acquaint the skippers of merchant vessels with the appearance of their own and hostile undersea vessels so that they will not fire on or ram a British submarine by mistake. In many quarters, the demand is increasing that masters of ships held up or threatened by submarines should be allowed to use offensive measures, and various private rewards totalling several thousand pounds still stand to be taken down by the first British skipper destroying a hostile submarine. It is not known what the admiralty instructions to skippers are, although a hint of what is expected of them was found in the recent declaration of the captain of the British steamer Laertes, who refused to surrender to a German submarine.

The British press now concedes that the Russians must have lost heavily in their retreat in East Prussia, but the newspapers refuse to credit Field Marshal von Hindenburg with a great victory pending the outcome of the rear guard action before the fortified line on the Niemen river. It is argued by British military experts that the German double flanking movement apparently has failed and this view also is held at Petrograd.

In the Champagne and the Argonne regions in the western theater of war, the Germans seem to be putting forth all their strength to capture the ground they are reported to have lost last week.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Washington, Feb. 18.—Interest in the publication of the full text of Great Britain's reply to the American protest against interference with United States commerce was overshadowed today by prospective developments in the situation arising from the announced intention of Germany to put into effect today her submarine war against merchant shipping.

Since Germany must compel the nations with which she is at war to return to the recognized principles of international law and restore the freedom of the seas she argues that the stand she has taken is necessary. The note recommends that the in British waters. The time set by Germany for enforcing her proclamation expired last midnight and officials feared for the safety of American shipping.

Meantime, the United States awaited the official reply of Germany to the American note of protest against the submarine decree. Official advice said it had been handed to Ambassador Gerard at Berlin.

Great Britain's answer denies the charge that American ships and cargoes are unduly detained or that detentions have been responsible for depression in American industries. It adds that if American commerce is depressed "the cause ought, in fairness, to be sought elsewhere than in the activities of the British fleet."

The note cites among other causes for slack business the shortage of shipping facilities, the consequent diminution of the cotton trade and the destruction by submarine mines "laid by the enemy" of many neutral vessels.

While conceding that foodstuffs for a civil population are not contraband, the British note declares that "in any country in which there exists such a tremendous organization for war as obtains in Germany, there is no clear division between those whom the government is responsible for feeding and whom it is not."

The answer announces Great Britain's intention to retaliate against Germany's submarine campaign.

GERMANY'S REPLY TRANSMITTED TO U. S. GOVERNMENT

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Berlin, via London, Feb. 18.—The reply of Germany to the protest of the United States against a blockade of British waters, is couched in the most friendly terms but firmly maintains the position of Germany as already announced. The answer, which is a lengthy document, was converted into code at the United States embassy under the direction of Ambassador Gerard and has been transmitted in full to Washington.

The note explains that Germany's proposed action is rendered necessary by Great Britain's policy of attempting to cut off the food supply for the German civil population by a method never recognized in international law. England's course in ordering merchantmen to fly neutral flags, equipping them with artillery with orders to destroy submarines, the German reply contends, renders nugatory the right of search thus giving Germany the right to attack English shipping. Germany holds that she cannot abandon that right under the stress which England has forced upon her.

Since Germany must compel the nations with which she is at war to return to the recognized principles of international law and restore the freedom of the seas she argues that the stand she has taken is necessary. The note recommends that the

Big Dirigible Catches Fire and Explodes; Crew Captured and Interned

(Associated Press Telegram.)

London, Feb. 18.—Fourteen members of the crew of the Zeppelin dirigible which was destroyed by an explosion in Fance island were rescued and will be interned by the Danish authorities, says a dispatch from Copenhagen to Reuters' Telegram company. The Zeppelin was cruising over the island with another when it caught fire and was compelled to descend, landing before the explosion took place.

The destroyed Zeppelin was the 1-3, one of the largest in commission. She was completed in 1914 and was 550 feet long, had a diameter of 61 feet and displaced thirty-two tons. She was supplied with four motors with a total horse power of 720 and had a speed of 40 knots. Commander Prinz says the situation when the fire broke out was critical. He feared that the bombs on board the airship would explode before he could get to the ground.

Representatives of the street car men's unions from several cities spoke in favor of the bill. They declared motormen and conductors under present hours of employment have little time to spend in their homes and often are compelled to work seven days a week.

Harry J. Crawford, speaking for the Cleveland street railway company, declared the measure, if enacted, would be ruinous to the street car system there.

Among those speaking against the bill were: E. F. Schneider and F. W. Brooks, Cleveland; F. D. Carpenter, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Peculiar After Effects Of Grip This Year

Leaves Kidneys In Weakened Condition

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are often very distressing and leave the system in a run down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer most, as almost every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signals often lead to dangerous kidney troubles. Druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp-Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and being a herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed in most cases by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Blahamington, N. Y., offer to send a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root, on receipt of ten cents, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles 50c. and $1.00. For sale at all druggists. Be sure to mention this paper.

CABRAL ADJUSTS DIFFERENCE WITH GOV. MAYTORENA

(Associated Press Telegram)

Douglas, Ariz., Feb. 18.—General Juan G. Cabral is reported to have adjusted his differences with Governor Maytorena, whom he was so suspected as military commander of Sonora two months ago.

Cabral conferred with General Ramon Sosa, commanding Cabral's forces of conventionists, Tuesday at Ojo de Agua. Afterwards he entered Cananea, where he met Yagui and Maytorena leaders.

Cabral's army, variously stated to be 2000 to 3000 men, is said to be well equipped. A rear guard of 500 is reported to be on its way to Cananea with some artillery.

Cabral came here recently after having been detained at Cananea Maytorena. He said he would take no further part in Mexican affairs, not having been successful in assuming command of the Maytorena forces in accordance with General Villa's order.

PLEA MADE FOR TRADE EXCHANGE BY COUNTRIES

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Feb. 18.—Manuel A. Molinueu, consul general of the Argentine republic, in New York, in an official statement made public today makes a plea for more extensive trade relations between the United States and Argentina. He goes into detail regarding the sound condition of Argentine finance.

After calling attention to Argentine imports from the United States, the consul-general says that while "the United States is interested in capturing our markets by selling its products to us, although the opportunity is there, it does not reciprocate in purchasing our goods in a similar degree, which would naturally have a great influence upon the minds of our people, and consequently, their interest would be aroused toward American products as a matter of reciprocity."

In conclusion the statement says: "As far as the financial situation of the country is concerned, it should be stated that it is of the most solid character. The commercial figures for 1913 show an excess of exports over imports, in other words, a balance of trade in favor of the Argentine Republic of $63,000,000. The Argentine foreign trade has reached a total of nearly $100,000,000 gold."

AMERICAN SHIPPING

United States government send warships to England to convey merchant vessels through the danger zone as security against attack with the understanding that vessels thus guarded shall carry no war supplies. Hope is expressed that the American government will understand the position in which Germany has been placed and appreciate the reasons for its course.

The reply closes with an expression of the hope that the United States may prevail upon Great Britain "to return to the principles of international law recognized prior to the outbreak of the war," and in particular obtain the observance of the London Declaration by belligerents opposed to Germany. If this were done, the note explains, Germany would be enabled to import food supplies and raw materials. Germany would recognize in this, says the reply, an invaluable service toward a more humane conduct of the war and would act in accordance with the new situation thus created.

The text of the German government's reply to the American note follows:

"The imperial government has examined the communication from the United States government in the same spirit of good will and friendship by which the communication appears to have been dictated. The imperial government is in accord with the United States government that for both parties it is in a high degree desirable to avoid misunderstandings which might arise from measures announced by the German admiralty and to provide against the occurrence of incidents which might trouble the friendly relations which so far happily exist between the two governments.

"With regard to the assuring of these friendly relations, the German government believes that it may all the more reckon on a full understanding with the United States, as the procedure announced by the German admiralty, which was fully explained in the note of the fourth instant, is in no way directed against legitimate commerce and legitimate shipping of neutrals, but represents solely a measure of self defense, imposed on Germany by her vital interests, against England's method of warfare, which is contrary to the international law and which so far no protest by neutrals has succeeded in bringing back to the generally recognized principles of law as existing before the outbreak of war.

"In order to exclude all doubt regarding these cardinal points, the German government once more begs leave to state how things stand. Until now Germany has scrupulously observed valid international rules regarding naval warfare. At the very beginning of the war Germany immediately agreed to the proposal of the American government to ratify the new declaration of London, and took over its contents unaltered, and without formal obligation, into her prize law. The German government has obeyed these rules, even when they were diametrically opposed to her military interests. For instance, Germany allowed the transportation of provisions to England from Denmark until today, though she was well able, by her sea forces, to prevent it. In contrast-distinction to this attitude England has not even hesitated at a second infringement of international law, if by such means she could paralyze the peaceful commerce of Germany with neutrals.

"The German government will be the less obliged to enter into details, as these are put down sufficiently, though not exhaustively in the American note to the British government dated Dec. 29, as a result of five months' experience.

"All these encroachments have been made, as has been admitted, in order to cut off all supplies from Germany and thereby starve her peaceful civil population—a procedure contrary to all humanitarian principles. Neutrals have been unable to prevent the interruption of their commerce with Germany which is contrary to international law.

"The American government, as Germany readily acknowledges, has protested against the British procedure. In spite of these protests, and protests from other neutral states, Great Britain could not be induced to depart from the course of action she had decided upon. Thus for instance, the American ship Wilhelm

Mr. Stasel's Reply.

Editor of the Advocate:

Not wishing to prolong a controversy in your paper to the impatience of your readers, yet the service director's statement is so misleading that a correction is necessary.

Now his meter readings, as found in his office, we will admit for the sake of argument to be correct, that is:

Current, 1911 68117
Current, 1912 515810
Current, 1913 575450
Current, 1914 547550

The service director does not say that this meter readings is the amount of current the meter shows was consumed.

On this city meter there is a "constant" of 10 and you find the amount of current by adding a cipher to the reading. This will make:

Current, 1911 681170
Current, 1912 515810
Current, 1913 575450
Current, 1914 547550

It will be observed that the service director is not open and above board in this matter. He says what the record shows but he does not say what the record means.

At the citizens meeting last week in the high school auditorium Mr. Harry Scott asked Mr. Christian in open meeting if the meter did not show the current consumed for 1914 to be 447,550 K. W. and the answer was "yes, about that figure." We all suppose he knew what he was talking about.

These meter readings are supposed to be taken each day and no person, including the director, would be so foolish as to keep a daily record of a meter that reports ten times less current than he knows passes through the meter.

Last year, then if we had bought 547,550 K. W. at 1.10 would make $6,023. This sum is over $2,000 less than the actual cost of operation for the year 1914, counting fuel.

To say a lamp consumes current when making no light is beyond the ken of the practical man. If this is true we had all better look after our electric light bills. The service director has done the consumers of electric current a great service in calling their attention to this fact.

But the point is this, and the service director has evaded it at every turn:

First: Had we purchased current last year at 1.10 we would have saved over $2,000, counting necessary fuel.

Second: If we buy current in the future at 1.10 it will be cheaper than to make it at a cost of 1.35.

If there is any reason why the city should not buy in the cheapest market—let us have the reason.

If the city makes a five or ten year contract for current now it will not cost any more at the end of that period to build and equip a new plant than it will cost now.

About this engineer, who it is claimed, says the present plant delivers 717,000 K. W. of current. The meters are the practical estimate.

But if the old plant has so high a capacity and efficiency why build a new plant? Why not repair the old one and let it go? But there is a wide difference between paper capacity and actual efficiency. Among citizens of average capacity, who will observe our electric lights as they have been burning for sometime back, will know that this old plant, whatever its paper capacity, has a very poor efficiency, and is about ready for the scrap pile, yet it is said in spite of this to have an efficiency of 747,000 K. W.

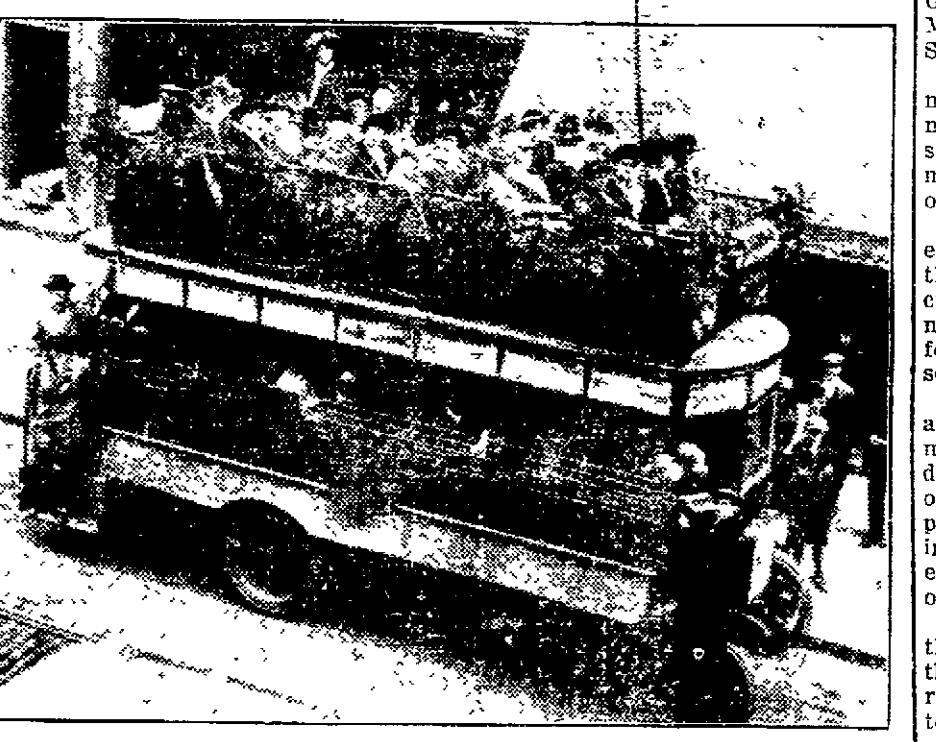

The service director knows the difference between a theoretical capacity and actual efficiency—that is why he wants to build anew.

"Germany is as good as cut off from her overseas supply by the silent or protesting toleration of neutrals not only in regard to such goods as are absolutely contraband, but also in regard to such as, according to acknowledged law before the war are only conditional contraband or not contraband at all. Great Britain, on the other hand, is with the toleration of neutral governments not only supplied with such goods as are not contraband or only conditional contraband, but with goods which are regarded by Great Britain, if sent to Germany, as absolute contraband: namely, provisions, industrial raw materials, etc., and even with goods which have always indisputably been regarded as absolute contraband.

"The German government feels itself obliged to point out with the greatest emphasis that a trade in arms, estimated at many hundreds of millions, is being carried on between American firms and Germany's enemies. Germany fully comprehends that the practice of neutral and the toleration of neutrals on the part of neutrals involve no formal violation of neutrality. Germany, therefore, did not complain of the formal violation of neutrality, but the German government, in view of complete evidence before it, cannot help pointing out that it, together with the entire public opinion of Germany, feels itself to be severely prejudiced by the fact that neutrals in abandoning their rights in legitimate commerce with Germany according to international law, have up to the present allowed no, or only insignificant, results, while they are making unlimited use of their right by carrying on contraband traffic with Great Britain and our other enemies.

"It is a formal right of neutrals to take no steps to protect their legitimate trade with Germany, and even to allow themselves to be influenced

BOY ESCAPES FROM OFFICERS; BROTHER HELPED

Leroy Livingston, 16, brought before the juvenile court last week on a charge of burglary, and who drew a suspended sentence to the Boys' Industrial school, will again be brought before the court, following his escape Thursday morning with Police Officers Abbott and Hurlbaugh and Sanitary Officer L. B. Munch. With the aid of an older brother, Livingston escaped arrest after abusing the officers with the vilest kind of language.

The lad when arrested, had two pocket knives which he claimed he took from a box secreted by another East Newark lad in the cattle pens along the Pennsylvania railroad in East Newark.

The officers visited the home Thursday morning to request the lad to show them where the stuff was concealed as there were a number of other articles stolen from the same place and the officers hoped to recover the property for the owner.

Young Livingston started in to give the officers a good cussing and besides using a variety of profane language he hurled this final shot at the officers: "You had me up in court the other day, why didn't you send me over then."

With this he dashed for the open with the officers in hot pursuit. The chase lasted some minutes when Livingston suddenly ran into Sanitary Officer Munch. Munch seized the youth to hold him for the arrival of the officers when Livingston's older brother appeared on the scene, threw his arms about Munch and pulling him backward. The younger boy squirmed from the officer's grasp and dashed away.

The older boy was placed under arrest on a charge of disorderly conduct and interfering with an officer. The conduct of the younger boy was reported to the juvenile court. Both boys are under suspended sentence in juvenile court.

BILL

Lima: A. O. Mather, Akron. Those urging passage of the measure were: George R. Davies, F. Schultz and W. M. Rea, Cleveland; William W. Smith, Cincinnati.

The bill provides that street car men may not be employed more than nine hours within any eleven consecutive hours in a day, and they must have thirteen consecutive hours of rest every day.

Republican senators today threatened an insurgent movement against the Mallow bill, to replace the agricultural commission with a board of nine members, when the bill came up for final consideration early in the session.

An amendment prepared by Senator Gallagher, of Madison, to remove the state fish and game warden's department from the authority of the proposed agricultural board, precipitated the insurgent movement in which several Republicans were expected to join, while Democrats opposed the entire measure.

Sportsmen interests were behind the amendment. In addition to them, Senator Tremper of Scioto represented other interests looking toward the establishment of a forest and game preserve in southern Ohio, opposing keeping the fish and game department under the agricultural board. A spirited debate was expected on the Mallow bill.

Favorable action by the senate on the Kramer house bill providing a method of contesting referendum elections seemed assured today when the senate elections committee voted to report the measure with recommendation for passage. It was amended, however, by providing suits for recount of such ballots should be started in the Franklin county common pleas court instead of the supreme court, as the original bill specified.

The chief justice is given authority to designate a common pleas judge to preside in the Franklin county court on such a case. The case can be carried to the supreme court.

Senator Winans, of Lake county, chairman of the committee investigating the banking department said today hearings before the committee, when resumed next week, are expected to develop evidence of mismanagement of the department on orders of "higher ups."

"We propose to catch these 'higher ups' or else none at all," said Senator Winans. "We are not after stenographers or clerks who did wrong." He said immunity had been offered no high officials, but intimated that these had offered to tell what they knew of mismanagement and political manipulation of the banking department's affairs.

Legislative leaders said they expected a session to be held tomorrow.

County commissioners could arrange for installation of water works systems in rural communities, by terms of a bill which Senator Lynch of Lucas had ready for introduction today. The bill is sanctioned by the state board of health.

Senator Pink of Hamilton expected to introduce a bill prohibiting a person from acting as a policeman and making arrests without specific authority from police authorities. It is said the bill is aimed at private detectives, who do not operate under police authority.

The Nield bill to authorize boxing contests in Ohio under the supervision of a special boxing commission, was smothered temporarily by the house cities committee today when by a vote of 3 to 6, a motion to report the bill with recommendation for passage failed to carry. The committee decided to take up consideration of the measure within a week, however. Franklin county sporting interests maintained that local commissions should be given authority to regulate boxing rather than a state commission.

RENEW SENATE FIGHT ON SHIP PURCHASE BILL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 18.—The fight over the amended government ship purchase bill was renewed in the senate today with the fate of the measure still uncertain.

With the view to clearing up the situation, the Democratic leaders were ready when the senate met to make another effort to send the bill to conference for further amendment in order to win the support of recalcitrant Democrats and Progressive Republicans.

They are not satisfied with the bill in its present form. The support of either faction is necessary to the passage of the measure. Unsuccessful attempts were made in the senate yesterday to send the measure to conference.

In renewing the attempt today, the Democratic leaders were confronted with the prospects that the Republicans, who declare that the bill is dead, would insist upon consideration of the supply measures before they let up in their opposition to the shipping bill. Administration leaders believe they can find a way to take up the appropriation bills in a day or so.

Inquiry into charges of lobbying against the government ship purchase bill was continued today by the special senate committee appointed for the purpose.

W. J. Sichel, an official of the Hamburg-American line was on hand ready to testify when the hearing began.

Wallace Downey, a New York shipbuilder, was ready to take the witness stand at the conclusion of Mr. Sichel's testimony.

Compliments Newark On Success Already Attained by Associated Charities; Columbus Man Speaks

Providing groceries and clothing for destitute people is the smallest part of the work of the Associated Charities, if the work is properly done, according to James L. Fieser, superintendent of the Columbus Associated Charities, who spoke last night before those interested in the work here. The meeting was held in the city council chamber and unfortunately, was not largely attended.

Mr. Fieser declared that the social service work was the most important feature of the plan of the associated charities. He took occasion to congratulate the city of Newark on the splendid progress of the infant organization here. "It is an evidence of an unusual amount of courage in the community," said Mr. Fieser, "to wrestle with the problems you have had to face, and come out with such a clean cut plan of —John A. Garno, Photographer.

THESE MEN CLEANED THE STREETS.
A few of the unemployed men were furnished work by the Associated Charities last week. They cleaned the city's streets, and were paid by the Associated Charities when the city had no funds with which to do the work. This enabled these men to provide food for their wives and children.

operation. It indicates a good fiber in the citizenship of the community. In his talk, Mr. Fieser traced the development of charity work from Biblical times and declared that there had been a tremendous transition in the attitude of people towards one another since ancient times. He contrasted the customs of the Spartans who exposed the weaklings and cripples to the rigors of the elements that they might die and thus rid the Spartan Nation of the burden of their care, to the customs in vogue today in which the state provides institutions for every kind of afflicted human beings and gives them tender care in an effort to bring into their unfortunate lives some happiness. He said that the world had not yet come to the end of the revolution of which this was only the start.

He told of the results of investigations of well organized charities, in developing the fact that applicants for relief bore a strange relationship to one another. He told of one family tree constructed by a charity organization from the applications made to it. This tree contained more than 100 family units numbering more than 700 individuals related through marriage or otherwise. He recommended segregation to control this growing evil.

Another evil which produces many applicants for relief is deserting husbands and fathers. He stated that in Cincinnati, the Associated Charities and Humane society had on record more than 2800 deserted children in the course of a year. In Columbus it is found that there are more cases of destitution resulting from desertion than from widowhood. He said that it was to be regretted that the state gave more attention to the horse thief than to the father who deserted his children.

Some of the features of the work not usually understood by those not familiar with the methods of Associated Charities were detailed. They are the investigation of loan sharks, reconstructive work among families, probing causes of unemployment, untangling families separated by adversity, tracing lost persons, investigation of social diseases and their relation to poverty, providing medical and surgical aid to families made destitute by illness of father or mother, social service work etc.

He told why the "red tape" was regarded as an important feature of the work. He said that the investigation of the family history of applicants for relief was the means used to secure statistics to be used in the future as a foundation for remedial measures.

In concluding, he said that there was no institution which the community could better afford to support than the Associated Charities, because of the tangible return on the investment. He declared that a well organized and well conducted Associated Charities makes a better community. United support, he said, was the first step toward the successful prevention of the causes of destitution.

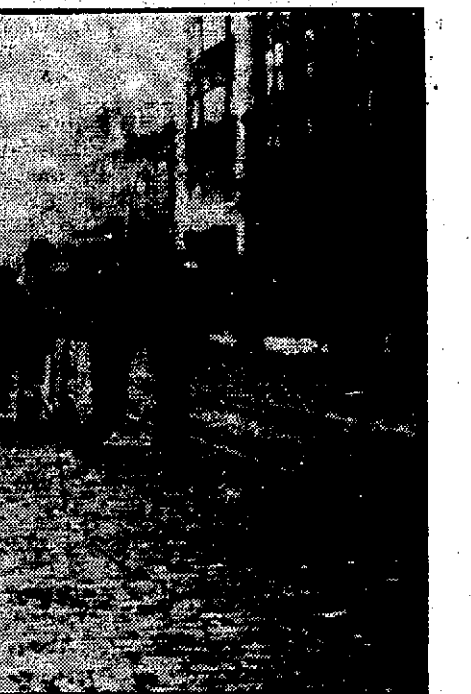

Wednesday, Feb. 17th proved an important day for the Associated Charities in Newark. The visit of Mr. James L. Fieser, Superintendent of Columbus Associated Charities, contributed much interest, and great value to the meetings held.

Meeting of Volunteer Workers.
Mr. Fieser discussed methods of going about the work of friendly visiting, of approach to family and neighborhood, the sympathetic attitude which the social worker must take. The question of employment was given special consideration as the basis of inquiry in most cases of need. The class in the study of philanthropy will give these problems further study. The next meeting will occur at the office on Wednesday, February 24th at 7:30 p. m. Meeting of Board of Directors and Finance Committee.

Reports by the Superintendent showed an increase in the number of applicants for work, especially from the Roumanian, Hungarian, and Italian families. A marked decrease in applications for free aid was shown. The number employed on public works and those listed for the week will reach two hundred, while a hundred more are on the waiting list.

The situation is improving, however, as shown by a greater number of men finding other jobs, and returning their work tickets unused. The response to last week's call for work has been gratifying also. Several men and women have been placed.

Again we must urge housekeepers to hurry their spring cleaning, and work on gardens, lawns, trees, etc., which would help greatly now. We also need shoes and trousers for men urgently. Please send to the office.

Important Change in Policy.
There has developed a misunderstanding as to our out-of-work. Some have regarded this as competing with regular labor and feared that our rate of fifteen cents an hour would tend to reduce regular wages. We adopted this rate because it is paid by Associated Charities in most cities where such work is done. Neither the work nor the wage is intended as a standard of employment or of wages but merely a better form of relief than free aid. Most of the families aided prefer this plan and they have generally commended it.

Associated Charities stands for the community welfare, however, and we would not take a position which would imperil the interests of any portion of the population. Therefore the Board of Directors and the Finance Committee in joint action agreed it would best conserve the interests of the entire community to change the rate to twenty cents an hour, the standard wage for unskilled labor. This change will take effect after Friday, February 19th, when all tickets now issued will be used. We shall be compelled to reduce the hours of labor correspondingly unless more funds are available.

The Finance Committee met this morning at the office and divided into squads to canvass the business district for funds today. His Honor, the Mayor, last night gave a strong testimony to the benefit the association has already worked for the town. Street and house to house begging have been reduced until both are below normal times. Many others give similar reports daily, and the association offers a program which will save the people of Newark from this nuisance and menace of begging. But now we need money to meet the present emergency and shall need three hundred dollars a week until April. This means that more men and women must think in hundreds when they meet this need. Several have set a high mark and after the present canvass is completed the Finance Committee will publish the names and gifts of subscribers. We appeal in the name of need, women and children of Newark. They need your help now.

TURKS TENDER SATISFACTION TO THE GREEKS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Feb. 18.—Turkey has yielded to the demand for satisfaction made by Greece because of the insult offered an attaché of the Greek legation at Constantinople.

The director general of police of Constantinople, it is officially announced, has visited the Greek legation in that city and in the presence of all the members of the staff, he formally expressed his regret at the insult offered the Greek naval attaché. He promised further that an official communication to this effect would be published in the press. The incident is now regarded as closed.

The Greek minister to Turkey left Constantinople the latter part of last week, leaving his secretary of legation in charge, because the Porte was slow in carrying out its agreement to give satisfaction for an insult offered the Greek naval attaché. The difficulty was not regarded as serious and it was felt that Turkey would offer the necessary apology.

REFUGEES BOARD AMERICAN BOAT AT ALEXANDRIA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Alexandria, Egypt, via London, Feb. 18.—Passengers by the American cruiser Tennessee which has been bringing refugees from the coast of Syria to Egypt, are authority for the statement that while no actual atrocities have been committed by the Turks in Syria, a number of persons have been maltreated. The population of Syria, although fanatical, is remaining calm.

The Tennessee arrived here yesterday from the Syrian coast. Refugees on board say that Hassan Bey, the commander at Jaffa, has a rather overbearing manner and that he treats nationals of the entente powers with great rigor. Reports of a great Turkish victory in Egypt printed in letters of gold, have been read in Jaffa. The people have been told that Israel and Suez have been occupied by the Turks who are now marching on Cairo. Graphic descriptions of the alleged sinking of several British cruisers in the Suez canal caused the greatest jubilation. The Turkish casualties in these engagements were given as ten men killed and 25 wounded. There was great rejoicing also at Jerusalem where a large amount of ammunition was expended on the firing of guns to celebrate the great Nationalists of the entente powers, Great Britain, France and Russia, were insulted by the populace and compelled to remain indoors. Six wounded German officers have been brought to Jerusalem where, Bach Pasha, the German commander, has his headquarters.

Some of the Arabs rebelled against the recruiting order, and several of them had to be shot before they would advance. It appears, according to the information brought by these refugees, that while Constantinople was anxious to attack Egypt, the Germans desired merely to menace the British and compel them to hold troops in Egypt. The Germans who participated in the fighting, still speak of the hardships of the trip across the desert and some of them express the opinion that Turkish success was impossible.

It is said there were 600 German officers and men in the Turkish army which undertook the expedition to Egypt. This army consisted of 7,000 well trained Anatolians with a number of Arabs and Bedouins.

All the refugees on the Tennessee were Israelis, no Christians being allowed to leave.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Backache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

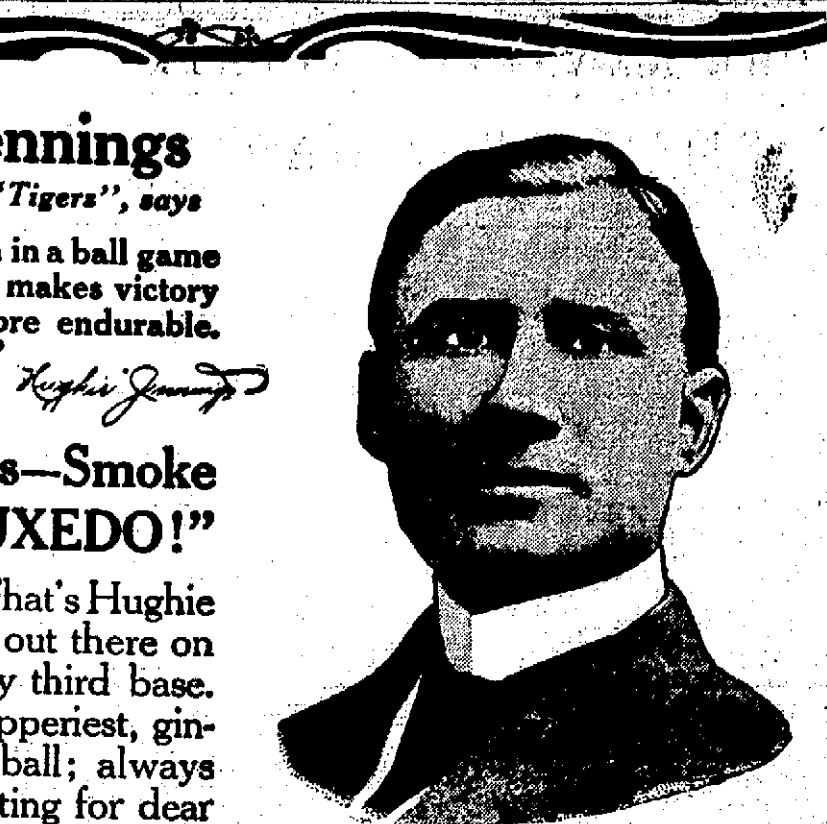

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a wellknown authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, head aches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Sackcloth is the proper thing to wear in Lent, but it has to be cut according to the 1915 spring styles.

In high society they observe Lent by telling the newspapers not to publish any reports of their card parties.

The views of the farmers about the evils of speculation seem to vary according to whether they have sold their wheat or not.

In order properly to discuss the high cost of bread, it is necessary for some people to order up several expensive bottles of extra dry.

The warring powers claim that American ships will be perfectly safe so long as they remain in the Hudson river and Delaware bay.

Killing 27,000 men in Europe does not draw any great crowd around the bulletin boards, but wait until they put 27 men out in the first league ball game of the season!

Our government has talked pretty sassy to Germany, but after having seen the fine appearance that our militia can make at a dance, no one should entertain any fears.

Strange to say the cold and heartless American public fails to sympathize with the sufferings of the citizen who is trying to make out the complicated income tax return.

The University of Wisconsin is looking for a business manager at $5000 a year, and knowledge of football would probably be more valuable than familiarity with Latin.

Owing to the high cost of running automobiles and staying at expensive hotels, our wealthy people have not so far been able to contribute heavily to save the Belgians from starving.

The heroic American householder, nerved on by the exploits of the European soldiers in the trenches, decides that as soon as the frost is out of the ground he too will start out with a spade and dig up the garden.

Promoting Prosperity.

In various parts of the country "build now" and other movements have been started to boom business. It is of course difficult to persuade people to alter individual plans to help on a general movement. But still there are many cases where people could promote their own interests as well as set money in circulation in this way.

Contractors would build a house today cheaper, in all probability, than they would a year from now. Repair jobs would in some cases be cheaper, and in any event vexatious delays could be saved by anticipating one's wants.

Most people let buildings go too long without necessary renovation. Money saved by economizing in house paint may not really be saved by any means. The impression gets abroad that a house is run down, and

What Some Men See.

A perfect picture of the standpoint mind is that given by a letter said to be on file among the records of the Patent Office at Washington. The writer, a sober, capable, industrious man, of good ability but narrow vision is resigning because (as he points out at length) the inventions have practically all been made, and he is getting out now when he can step into a good position elsewhere, so as not to be stranded when the Patent Office is discontinued, as must be done in a year or two. This letter was written in 1833. What is your notion of the future of your line?—Collier's Weekly.

Impossible!

The troubles of Italy are multiplying. Earthquakes and floods are alternating and if they keep it up much longer the country will be completely devastated. Its afflictions are worse than war.—Zanesville Signal.

Fashion's Decree.

Whether a woman be long or short, fashion decrees that the skirt must be eight inches above the ground. But fashion doesn't terrify some women. They do as they please. Not many, however.—Illinois State Register.

No Extra Session.

The Democratic majority in the House has agreed to pass the Ship Purchase Bill. The Democratic majority in the Senate can pass the bill unless some of its members put their allegiance to ship subsidies above their allegiance to their party and the public interest. The World believes that the bill ought to pass, and that it can be defeated only through Democratic treachery; but whether the bill becomes a law or not, there should be no extra session of Congress.—New York World.

A Long Look Ahead.

In Maine there are landowners who believe in doing something for future generations. A farm area of 11,000 acres near Farmington is being planted with 50,000 white pine trees. The statement that in 100 years the trees will be ready for conversion into lumber is proof that public spirit, not immediate gain, entered into the reforestation plan. This estimate of the time required for the development of a white pine tree emphasizes once again the need of caution in the use of fire in the woods. A match dropped by a careless camper or smoker may destroy in a few hours the growth of fifty years or a century. The yearly losses in burned timber are indeed high and Americans have been singularly slow in providing adequate punishment for the persons who give no thought to the slowness of the growth of a forest.—Providence Journal.

Canadian Anxiety.

Canadian nerves must be under severe tension when toy balloons sent up from the American side of the border can be converted into aeroplanes carrying searchlights and bent upon the destruction of Government buildings. Not long ago two American duck hunters were shot during a scare of this kind—a mistake for which Canada had to pay handsomely. We have lived in the greatest amity with our North neighbor for a full century and she should not be so quick to suspect hostile designs from our people. Some hypenated persons among us may talk foolishly, but Canada may be assured that no hostile movement against her would be tolerated for a second.—Philadelphia Record.

CHEAP SPORTS.

So long as all our schemes are winning, we find it easy to keep grinning, to say that life's O. K.; we all are cheerful, blithe and sunny, when we are reeking in the money, and putting lots of it in the bank. We cry, "This world is sweet and cheerful! Oh, why is anybody tearful, why are there sobs and sighs? There isn't such a thing as sorrow, and he's a chump who tries to borrow a pair of weeping eyes."

We all are optimists, for certain, when we're with Fortune gaily flitting, and seldom drawing blanks; we all are singing psalms with ardor, when we have bacon in the larder, and credit at the banks. But when we have a few reverses ah, then our remnant stock of curses all grouchyly we spring, we ceased to boost the world we dwell in, and like a wounded pup we're yelping, we fail to dance and sing. No more like bumble bees we humble, we stand around and groan and grumble, our spirits in eclipse, the world's no more an El Dorado, and nothing can we see but shadow, because we've lost our grip. It's only when our schemes are winning that we go round serenely grinning, like children at their play; cheap sports, the whole blamed pack and hollering, we sulk and brood and quit our tolling, when things don't come our way.

MEN live in deeds. For good or ill

Time is no more can it be said,
"The man is dead."

LIVED one who Freedom's standard raised—
Lived, fought and passed; was blamed and praised;
Was crowned a hero in his day,
Then passed away.

A PEOPLE from oppression freed,
By him torn from a tyrant's greed,
Became a nation; lived and thrived
Because he strived.

THE heart that for his people's woes
Found courage to oppose their foes
Still pulsates in the nation's breast—
His grand behest.

GREAT Washington! Each passing year
But makes thy memory more dear;
Each year but adds unto thy fame,
Exalts thy name.

YOUR deeds live on, and in them you.
Your hand still guides. A purpose true
The nation's heart inspires. Lead on,
Brave Washington!

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID SICKNESS

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease.

WEATHER OF ONE YEAR AGO VERY STORMY

The weather one year ago today was a harbinger of a week of some of the most inclement weather that Newark experienced in 1914, according to the official log kept daily at the B. & O. baggage room. Whether or not the weather today would bring upon the residents of Newark the same conditions that they had to face during the week following February 18, 1914, was a fact to which the log-keeper would not admit. However, on the day of February 18, 1914, the mercury dropped from 49 degrees to 26 degrees, rain beginning shortly after 11 o'clock that later in the day turned to snow. From that day on until February 23 when snow fell to the depth of 10 inches, the weather became continually colder, the thermometer registering four degrees below zero.

Mrs. Elmer Deck was pleasantly surprised at her home in North Fourth street on Tuesday evening by a number of her friends. Crawford, John Wickham, Misses Mary Eshelman, Cora Eshelman, Bertha Great, Marie Great, Grace Root, Mr. Russell Holter and Master Godfrey Deck.

Mrs. John Casto entertained the Idle Hour Sewing club, at her home, 48 North avenue, Wednesday afternoon in a delightful manner. It being Mrs. Casto's natal anniversary, she was the recipient of a number of presents. The guests of the club were Mrs. John Reid and Miss Florence Hall. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Frank Mayer, 223 North Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wright entertained at the home in North Sixteenth street on Monday evening. The time was informally spent and luncheon was served.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Baughman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baughman, Mr. and Mrs. Vant Baughman, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Baughman, Mrs. Paris and daughter Cecile of Cincinnati, Mrs. Blanch Baughman, Misses Mildred Baughman, Mabel Baughman, Arla Ross, Clara Kregger, Messrs. The Monday Talks and the Hetuck Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution are planning a delightful entertainment for Monday afternoon, Washington's Birthday, and it will be given in Taylor Hall. A stereopticon, entertainment showing the old trails of Ohio which are being marked will be given and tea will be taken, and as the meeting is open to all interested, undoubtedly a large assemblage will attend.

EVANGELISTIC TEAM AT THE M. E. CHURCH

A great evangelistic program has been arranged to start the revival campaign at the First M. E. church next Sunday. A force of workers from the Tabernacle Workers' League of Columbus—all Billy Sunday converts—will be in all the services. The team consists of Mr. R. J. Mitchell who has been described as a second Rhode-leaver, who comes as a soloist, and will sing at all the services. Mr. L. L. Mix is the song leader, and has the reputation of being able to get more men to sing than any leader in the work.

Mr. Mix will be in charge of the music and Mr. Mitchell will sing at the morning service and Dr. Sparks will preach. At the afternoon service, 2:30 o'clock, for men and women, Mr. George S. Graber will speak. Mr. Graber has the most wonderful story of any man in Columbus. He is a convincing speaker and recently at a nearby town where he told this life story the entire audience of 800 sobbed like their hearts would break. At the evening service these men, who will be assisted by some other workers, will have charge. These represent the strongest team of workers sent out by Workers' League and have gone over Ohio singing gospel songs, and telling salvation's story in a way that has helped hundreds to find a better way to live. Plan your Sunday so you can hear them at one or all the services. The big Methodist church will be thrown open and the crowd well taken care of. Everybody can hear and see. The service will continue through the week, beginning every evening at 7:30 o'clock.

OFFICER CAUGHT BURGLAR IN ACT USING A JIMMY

After following a suspicious character on the street for some distance, Patrolman Louis Swinehart Wednesday night suddenly came upon the man attempting to force an entrance to the Clouse & Schaeffer Millinery store. Marks on the door indicated that the man had inserted a jimmy, found in his possession, several places in the crack of the door. The jimmy he used is the "brake key" which has figured in so many burglaries about the city in the past few years. These are easily obtained from railroad cars and are very efficient. An affidavit charging attempted burglary was filed against William Wade, whom Swinehart arrested. Wade is said to have attempted to drop the jimmy in an ash barrel but was prevented from doing so and the instrument will be used as evidence.

THE SICK

Mrs. G. W. Cameron, residing three miles southeast of the city, who has been a patient at the City Hospital was removed in the Badler & Bradley ambulance to her home Wednesday. Mrs. W. A. Nichols, who has been quite ill with the grip, is much improved under the care of Dr. G. W. Sapp. Mrs. Samuel Lanning, who has been a patient at the Sanitarium, was removed to her home in Serocto avenue in the Criss Brothers ambulance on Wednesday. George Notche, a foreigner living at 303 Van Vorhis street, was taken seriously ill on Wednesday and removed to the Newark Sanitarium in Criss Brothers ambulance. Benjamin Barr was removed from his home 88 Manning street to the City Hospital on Wednesday afternoon in the Criss Brothers ambulance.

HOW TO CORRECT FAULTY DIGESTION

Faulty digestion, flatulence, indigestion, dyspepsia and, in fact, most forms of stomach trouble—are almost invariably due to acidity and food fermentation. Drugs and medicines which stimulate the digestive organs are practically useless in these cases because they act only on the stomach and do not affect the cause of the trouble—the acidity and fermenting food. To instantly neutralize the acid and stop fermentation many physicians and specialists prescribe a teaspoonful of bicarbonate of soda dissolved in water. Since the discovery by an eminent specialist of this remarkable property of bicarbonate of soda, it is being adopted as a standard antidote and food corrective in many hospitals as well as by many prominent medical men throughout the world. Bicarbonate should always keep bicarbonate handy, as its use invariably insures painless, normal digestion.

AUSTRIANS ARE OCCUPYING THE TOWN OF KOLOMEA

Vienna, Feb. 18.—Via London.—Official reports given out in Vienna say that after two days of hard fighting the Austrians have occupied the town of Kolomea, Galicia. "This success was achieved yesterday afternoon by means of a general attack on the Russian positions," the report says. "We drove the enemy, in spite of his stubborn resistance, out of his last position in front of Kolomea, thus reaching the town at one operation. We prevented the Russians from blowing up the bridge over the river Pruth. The town, clear of retreating Russians, was occupied by us. We captured 2,000 prisoners and several machine guns and light cannon. "In the Carpathian section, as far as Vyschokoff, the fighting continues with great ferocity. Four thousand additional prisoners have been brought in." Want a house? Read the Wants.

CATARRH GERMS EASILY KILLED

Only Way To Cure This Disease Is To Destroy Its Cause.

By A Specialist.

If you have catarrh and want to get rid of it you must kill the germs which cause the catarrh. Stomach dosing, ointments, sprays, creams, douches, etc., fail because they only reach the surface, but they do not reach the germ life that has found lodgement in your head, nose, throat, and could not destroy it if they did.

The best known way of destroying the dangerous germs of catarrh and consequently ending the disease itself, is to breathe into the air passages of your nose and throat the pleasant, penetrating air of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mei). Hyomei is made from purest oil of Eucalyptus combined with other powerful, healing, antiseptic and germicidal ingredients. You breathe it through a little pocket inhaler which T. J. Evans and other leading druggists in Newark and vicinity are furnishing with every complete treatment sold. Every time you inhale the sweet, fragrant air of Hyomei through this little device you are drawing upon your swollen, inflamed, germ laden membranes a medicated air which will not only reduce all the swelling and inflammation and open your clogged nose and stoppage air passages, but will absolutely and positively destroy every trace of catarrh germ life it reaches. Druggists are so sure of the blessed, lasting relief that Hyomei brings to catarrh sufferers that they sell it invariably on the positive guarantee that money paid will be refunded if successful results are not secured from its use. Get a Hyomei outfit from your druggist today and begin at once to drive this dangerous and disgusting disease from your system forever.

All money contributed will be expended in Ohio for food and clothing.

RUSSIANS STATE 1,400 PRISONERS WERE CAPTURED

Petrograd, Feb. 18.—The general staff of the Russian army has issued a report on the progress of the fighting as follows:

"On the right bank of the Vistula, the fighting has been going on in almost the same intensity with great ferocity in certain sections."

"In the region of the Niemen river, we have found only patrols of the enemy."

"On the left bank of the Vistula there has been no change."

"In Galicia we repulsed an attack on the Khava Vukotich front with great loss to the enemy. Further to the east the enemy endeavored to attack us in the region of Louine-Stoudenne, but without success. In repelling this attack, we made prisoners of 10 officers and 1,400 soldiers, and captured three guns."

"On the front from Kozlonska to Mount Vyschokoff the Germans delivered a series of determined and spirited attacks, forcing themselves vigorously in the direction of Mount Vyschokoff. All these advances were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy. Almost an entire battalion was put to the sword. The rest of the Germans were made prisoners."

"There is no change in Bukovina."

STATEMENT OF GERMAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Berlin, Feb. 18.—By Wireless to Sayville.—The German army headquarters today issued the following statement: "On the road to Arras and Lille, fighting continues, for a small section of a German trench, into which the enemy entered on Feb. 16."

"The number of French prisoners taken yesterday to the northeast of Rheims has been increased. The French losses in this region especially were heavy."

"French attacks have ceased in Champagne. To the north of Perthes fighting continues. To the east of Perthes, the French were repulsed, suffering heavy losses. The enemy has only in a few instances advanced to the German trenches."

"The number of prisoners reported to have been taken by us yesterday has been increased to 11 officers and 755 men."

BURGLARY CHARGE WILL BE FILED AGAINST SUSPECT

Burt Cochran in custody pending an investigation of his story explaining his possession of three pieces of bacon which he had when taken into custody, probably will be charged with burglarizing the warehouse of the Newark Provision Company Sunday night and stealing a dozen slabs of bacon and 35 pounds of butter.

When arrested, Cochran told the officers that he found the bacon in the street where it had evidently dropped from a wagon. Officers inquired of local wholesale and retail dealers and found nothing of the kind missing. However, the provision company did report the burglary of their warehouse.

B. N. Austin, Chicago, general passenger agent of the B. & O.; J. M. Chesbrough, Pittsburg, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines; Dan L. Smith, traveling passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines; and F. P. Copper, Columbus, district passenger agent of the B. & O., arrived in Newark at noon Thursday, to be present at the mass meeting tonight in the council chambers, when a general discussion of the half-cent increase in railroad fares, advocated by the railroads, will be held. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock sharp and an urgent invitation to Newark business men to attend and express their views in the matter has been issued by the railroads.

Forbid Sale of Heavy Intoxicants to German Soldiers

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Berlin, Via London, Feb. 18.—While the proprietors of large cafes are pleading for an extension until two o'clock of the recent one o'clock closing order on the ground that they are facing ruin, the police are reported to be seriously considering the advisability of forbidding all afternoon cabarets and vaudeville teas.

Failing to obtain satisfactory results merely by making appeals, the police have issued an order which becomes operative Friday, forbidding the sale to soldiers of all heavy intoxicants. Virtually everything but beer is placed under the ban.

TO REPEAL BILL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Olympia, Wash., Feb. 18.—The state senate judiciary committee yesterday agreed to report favorably the bill to repeal the anti-capital punishment law passed by the 1913 legislature. Supporters of capital punishment for first degree murder point out that in the last two months ten murders have been committed in King county, which includes Seattle.

THE MORNING COLD PLUNGE.

It requires no small courage to jump from a snug warm bed straight into a cold plunge, and the most hardened enthusiast for cold baths admits that she does not hesitate long to meditate, but just hustles in to get it over and done.

If the system reacts quickly from the shock and the following brisk rub with a Turkish towel causes a glow so that the bather feels comfortable and warm by the time dressing is accomplished the cold bath has been beneficial. But the man or woman who comes to breakfast with blue lips and chilled feeling had best omit the cold plunge.

Some people really suffer from the shock even of an ocean bath in summer if the water is unusually cold and when an aversion to the cold cannot be overcome physicians nowadays are loath to urge a continuance of the treatment.

It must be remembered, however, that when one does enjoy the cold baths and thrives upon it, it still does not do away with the need for frequent hot baths.

Cold water does not remove dirt, open the pores or improve circulation, and to keep the skin in good condition hot baths with plenty of soap are indispensable.

It is not well to take either a hot or a cold bath immediately after eating nor is it wise to go outdoors in severe weather right after a hot bath unless one has splashed cold water liberally over the chest and back following the hot immersion.

Four Little Children of German Crown Princess.

Here are the four little children of the crown prince and princess of Germany—Princesses Wilhelmine, Louise, Ferdinand, Hubertus, and George—each of whom are giving up their entire time to the war. The crown prince is in the field leading an army in the middle section of the line fronting the French. The crown princess spends her time at the Cecilien House in Berlin, where hundreds of orphans and other children bereft by the war are being cared for. She has worked every day in this institution since the war began.

EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE

"Is it proper for me to invite a man to call or should the man first ask permission?" was Maud's problem. "It is perfectly proper for a young woman to take the initiative but this invitation should not be given until after two or more meetings," advised her aunt.

Mr. Ross Bounds, of 252 West Main St., Newark, Ohio, says:

"For a long period of time I suffered with sharp, shooting pains and a severe case of Neuralgia. My face was swollen badly and I suffered terribly. Nothing I took seemed to give me any relief. I tried several remedies but could not notice a change until I started taking Lloyd's Kidney and Rheumatism Tablets. This new scientific prescription is certainly a wonderful medicine. After a few applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any falling hair, and the scalp will never itch.

YOUR BOYS AND GIRLS

Little girls love dainty things to wear just as much as grown up girls, and mothers should encourage their daughters to take good care of their more delicate fripperies. A little pair of slippers to be worn when visiting, would appeal to the average miss of five summers.

The prettiest of slippers can be made at the expense of very little money and very little time. Lamb's wool socks should be used for winter slippers. A piece of broad ribbon may be shirred about the sole, and fastened with a strong over-and-over stitch on the inside. It might be well to use strong white patent thread for this inside sewing of the upper part of the slipper to the soles. Run a tiny casing of ribbon about the top of the slipper on the wrong side and through this run an elastic.

At the front of the slipper should be placed a bow or rosette of ribbon or a tiny bunch of roses made from ribbon and chiffon. The bow would probably be more practical for the rough handling when children are likely to give even the daintiest of things.

It's all right to take things as you find them, provided you leave some for the rest of us.

| New York Stock Exchange. | |
| [ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] | |
| New York, Feb. 18.—More than ordinary | |
| interest attached to the opening | |
| of today's stock market because of | |
| the increased tension abroad. London, | |
| however, showed some firmness in the | |
| American list, and initial prices here, | |
| were somewhat irregularly indicated | |
| a degree of support, leading issues ad- | |
| vancing a fraction over yesterday's | |
| closing. The feature of the session was | |
| the Mexican Petroleum, which was | |
| heavily traded in at further declines. | |
| The stock's reversal movement, sug- | |
| gested precipitate liquidation. Ex- | |
| change, another oil property, also | |
| was weak. | |
| Standard shares, including the Pa- | |
| cific, Reading, U. S. Steel and Amalg- | |
| amated Copper, fell fractionally under | |
| yesterday's lowest quotation in the | |
| first hour. Such upward tendencies at | |
| the list might have shown were | |
| checked by obvious manipulation in | |
| certain specialties and the further | |
| concern evidenced over the foreign sit- | |
| uation. Minneapolis and St. Louis is- | |
| suess declined three to four points on | |
| denial by Canadian railways interests | |
| of any intention to acquire the prop- | |
| erty. Exchange on London manifested | |
| increasing firmness, continental rates | |
| moving up in sympathy. European of- | |
| ferings caused recurrent depression in | |
| investment bonds. | |

Readers' View Point

Boosting Newark.

Editor of the Advocate:

I wish to call your attention to the general spirit shown towards assisting one another in this city. We have a large sign on the Trust building reading: "Boost Newark." Don't you think it would be a good plan to remove it?

How many of our moneyed men are paying any heed to what the sign says and how many of our best respected citizens and men of our Board of Trade jump on an electric car and go to our capital city and buy their clothing, etc. over there? We also have or can produce the best craftsmen, or as good as can be found in the state and yet instead of keeping our money at home, the contrary is given invariably to people in some other city. I know of business men who after accepting every dollar that they might hand them, and still holding out their hands for more, that if they have a job on hand, they would prefer giving the job to a man who never did a job for them, than to even give the man who had spent his last dollar with them, even a try out. Such has been my experience this winter in our city. The fact is, Mr. Spencer, this town will never be any more than it is just so long as the people in it show that kind of a disposition. You very seldom hear people say Newark is a beautiful place and I feel proud that I live here. No, but as a rule they knock on it right away. Do they do that in Columbus or Zanesville? Not much, they don't. On the contrary they would knock you down if you would say one word against their city and in their estimation, their town and people are just a little better than they are any place else and as a general rule they keep their work and money at home, where it belongs.

REPLY OF GREY IS APPROVED BY LONDON TIMES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Feb. 18.—The reply of Sir Edward Grey to the United States shipping protest is given hearty approval in an editorial in the Times, which says:

"It is a powerful defense of the British position founded upon those arguments of law and faith and will appeal with particular force to American minds as to our own. It comes oppositely on a day when Germany boasts her intention to trample all laws and customs of the sea under her feet."

Sir Edward's reply, the Post argues in an editorial, already is antiquated because of Winston Spencer Churchill's announcement in parliament Monday of reprisals proposed against the German threat of a blockade. The Post welcomes it, however, as proving that Sir Edward has come to a realization that war cannot be prosecuted successfully by indulging in ideals.

GERMANS WIN AT GRANVILLE BY 36-33 SCORE

Granville, Feb. 18.—Baffled by the wonderful passing of the Buffalo Germans in the last 10 minutes, Denison lost a spectacular game here last night 36 to 33. This is the first time Denison has been beaten on their home floor for three years. Play was rough throughout. Defeat for Denison may be attributed to the failure to make easy chances under the basket. The Germans won by superior passwork in the last 10 minutes, and an uncanny certainty in basket shooting by Rhode and Post.

Starting in championship form, Denison took the lead and had the Germans 18 to 4 before the visitors got busy. Great team work enabled Livingston's men to take this lead. Reese and Thiele showed some fine dribbling and worked the ball under the basket. Then the Germans began some wonderful passing, Rhode and Post goaled from all angles and the half ended 20 to 21 for Buffalo. Lineup:

Jess Willard and the "Greasers."

Jess Willard, the giant of six feet and seven inches, who is in training near Ysleta, Texas, for his fight of forty-five rounds with Jack Johnson, is a perpetual wonder to the Mexicans of the border. In order to impress two he stood up with them and had his photograph taken.

The photograph incidentally shows that Willard is already in pretty good condition for the fight. He weighed at the time 245 pounds, and he said he wished to be reduced to 230. He expects to enter the ring with Johnson at that weight. Johnson will be considerably smaller, and will probably not go more than 215 pounds, if he can get down to the proper condition. Johnson is older, but not near so large a man as Willard. Of course, those persons now on the ground expect to see Willard win. He has shown such capability in his training that they cannot imagine how a smaller man will stand in front of him.

Chicago Benefits From Paper Sale By Former Newsies

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, Feb. 18.—A hundred and fifty Chicagoans, who have risen to social, professional and financial distinction turned the clock back from twenty to fifty years today and sold newspapers again as they used to when boys.

It was "Old Newsboys day." Funds received through the sale of papers will be devoted to relief of the unemployed through the agency of the municipal industrial commission.

Scores of the old time "newsies" offered unique attractions at their street corner stands to increase sales. Some of them dressed as they did years ago, others employed hands and singers and one had a trained bear as an attraction.

POSSE HUNTS INDIAN WANTED FOR A MURDER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Denver, Colo., Feb. 18.—Advices from Cortez, Colo., today stated that the posse of twenty-six men who left there yesterday for Bluff, Utah, to attempt the capture of Tse Ne Gat, a Piute Indian, wanted by the federal authorities of this city on the charge of murdering a herder near Cortez last March, spent the night in McElmo canon, 20 miles west of here. An effort will be made to reach Grayson, Utah, 40 miles west of McElmo canon tonight, where the party expects to meet a Utah posse under United States Marshal Aquila Nebeker, of Salt Lake City.

Under the leadership of "Old Polk," father of the Indian whose capture is sought, a band of fifty or more armed Piutes are reported to have gathered in a remote section of southeastern Utah to aid Tse Ne Gat in an effort to elude arrest.

A MERCILESS JUDGE.

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Newark resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

William M. Larson, 434 West Main street, Newark, says: "My back pained me terribly and if I stooped, sharp twinges caught me across my loins and hips. The misery nearly bent me double and I often had to put my hands on my knees in order to bend. Sometimes I felt as if I were going to topple over from dizziness and dark spots floated before my eyes, nearly blinding me. The action of my kidneys, was irregular and caused me a lot of trouble. All is different now since I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They made a cure and it is lasting." Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Larson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

How To Make the Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind and You Save $2. Fully Guaranteed

This home-made cough syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Its promptness, ease and certainty in conquering distressing coughs, chest and throat colic, is really remarkable. You can actually feel it take hold. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Splendid, too, for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you—at a cost of only 64 cents—a full pint of better cough syrup than you could buy for $2.50. Takes but a few minutes to prepare. Full directions with Pinex. Tastes good and never spoils.

You will be pleasantly surprised how quickly it loosens dry, hoarse or tight coughs, and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, be sure and ask your druggist for "2½ ounces Pinex," and don't accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ESCORT TO BE FURNISHED FOR ALLIES' VESSELS

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Feb. 18.—Swift British and French destroyers will meet all threatened steamships flying flags of the allies and escort them into port according to cable messages received by officials of steamship companies with offices in this city. The receipt of these messages, officials of British and French lines announced today, made them confident that the German sea decree which went into effect today would have little effect upon shipping to and from ports in England and France.

Inquiry at the big steamship lines brought forth statements that there was no intention of changing routes or sailing dates.

The White Star liner Adriatic from this port with many prominent passengers, is due at Liverpool about noon on Friday. The officials of the line say that she will be undoubtedly conveyed by war vessels through the war zone.

Harold A. Sanderson, president of the International Mercantile Marine, was a passenger on the White Star liner Megantic yesterday. He said that he did not believe the danger to passenger steamers is any greater now than it was before Germany's decree went into effect.

The Megantic will call at Halifax, N. S., and should reach Liverpool next Thursday.

The Mannewaska, of the Atlantic transport line was to depart from London today. She probably will have no more than a dozen first class cabin passengers, and little freight.

KENTUCKY POLITICIAN COMMITTS SUICIDE
 Louisville, Ky., Feb. 18.—E. W. Lillard, a prominent Kentucky politician shot and killed himself at his home in Danville yesterday, according to special telegrams printed here today.
 Mr. Lillard with three other Democratic representatives was instrumental in breaking a deadlock six years ago in the Kentucky legislature and in securing the election of the late Senator W. O. Bradley, Republican, over J. C. W. Beckham, Democrat, to the U. S. senate. He later was appointed Bradley's private secretary.

 This is a natural result of mine warfare which, even under the strictest observance of the limits of international law endangers every ship approaching the mine area. The German government considers itself entitled to hope that all neutrals will acquiesce in these measures as they have done in the case of the grievous damages inflicted upon them by British measures all the more so as Germany is resolved, for the protection of neutral shipping even in the naval war zone, to do everything which is at all compatible with the attainment of this object.
 "In view of the fact that Germany gave the first proof of her good will in fixing a time limit of not less than fourteen days before the execution of said measures, so that neutral shipping might have an opportunity of making arrangements to avoid threatening danger, this can most surely be achieved by remaining away from the naval war zone. Neutral vessels which, despite this ample notice which greatly affects the achievement of our aim in our war against Great Britain enter these closed waters will themselves bear the responsibility for any unfortunate accidents that may occur. Germany disclaims all responsibility for such accidents and their consequences."
 In closing, the note says: "Germany repeats that it has now resolved upon the projected measures only under the strongest necessity of national self defense, such measures having been deferred out of consideration for neutrals."
 "If the United States, in view of the weight which it is justified in throwing and able to throw into the scales of the fate of peoples should succeed at the last moment in removing the grounds which make that procedure an obligatory duty for Germany, and if the American government in particular should find a way to make the declaration of London respected—on behalf also of those powers which are fighting on Germany's side—and thereby make possible for Germany legitimate importation of the necessities of life and industrial raw material, then the German government could not too highly appreciate such a service, rendered in the interests of humane

NAVAL CRITIC'S COMMENT ON THE GERMAN REPLY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
 Berlin, Feb. 18.—Via London—Count von Reventlow, the German naval critic comments in today's issue of the Tages Zeitung on the answer of the German government to the American note on the subject of the marine war zone around Great Britain.

The writer declares that the tone of the German note, in spite of the tone of the American communication, shows that Germany is prepared to go to the utmost limits compatible with the situation. No fault can be found with the declaration in the German answer, Count von Reventlow declares, that the German government will not permit American desires to prevent occurrences which could disturb existing friendly relations.
 "One can read only with pleasure those parts of the German answer which refer to American supplies to England and France," the writer says. "We add to this that these shipments of weapons to our enemies have filled public opinion in Germany with deep indignation and bitterness against the United States. Statistics of the amount of these shipments show that the Germans are not now justified in speaking of friendly relations."
 Count von Reventlow then refers to the government's assumption that neutrals do not intend to offer opposition to the forcible suppression of the weapon trade with Germany's enemies and he says that even if the German government finds itself disappointed in this self evident assumption, it will carry its firm decision through to the end.

"Submarine commanders," the writer goes on to say, "have been instructed to avoid damaging American ships recognizable as such, but it must be pointed out that American ships will be accompanied by American warships."
 To assume that American flags make ships recognizable and assure their safety would be a gross misconception of the note."
 The National Zeitung says it believes the United States will understand this is a life struggle for Germany and that the friendly though firm tone of the German answer will make a good impression, the more so because Germany at the same time gives the United States the friendly advice to have warships accompany its vessels.

The Tageblatt calls Germany's answer "in its form, in its friendly tone and its calm firmness an excellent document." It says it removes every excuse for misunderstanding of the German declaration of Feb. 4, as being directed against legitimate commerce. "President Wilson, this paper says, cannot expect the weapon shipments of Americans to the enemies of Germany will be allowed to pass, nor can he demand that American ships be protected from the consequences of Great Britain's misuses of the American flag. The answer exceeds the demands of courtesy by pointing out to America a way of ensuring the safety of her ships, namely, a convoy of warships."
 "We can only hope that the United States," the Tageblatt continues, "may understand the spirit breathed by the German note which goes beyond the limits set by mere courtesy."
 Die Post, says the German government does not recede one hair's breadth from the measures announced for Feb. 18. Neutral countries especially the United States are again warned to keep their ships away from the war zone.
 "America's bluff assumption that we could assume responsibility for the endangering or destruction of American ships," Die Post says, "is flatly rejected."

ASSUMES AN ATTITUDE OF FRIENDLINESS
 (ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
 London, Feb. 18.—An attitude of friendliness toward the United States is assumed by Germany in its reply to the war zone protest but no promise of modification is made, according to the Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company, who says an official telegram from Berlin announces that the German reply has been handed to Ambassador James W. Gerard.
 The reply states that the communication from the United States government was examined in the same good will and friendship by which the protest "seems to have been dictated." It continues:

 "The imperial German government is in accord with United States government in that for both parties it is to a high degree desirable to avoid any misunderstanding which might arise from the measures announced by the German admiralty and to provide against the occurrence of incidents which might trouble the friendly relations which so far happily exist between the two governments."
 The German government, the note says, believes it may reckon on a full understanding with the United States because the proposed procedure of the German admiralty is not aimed at the legitimate commerce of neutrals, but represents solely a measure of self-defense imposed on Germany by her vital interests against England's method of warfare, which is contrary to international law, which so far no protests by neutrals have succeeded in bringing back to the generally recognized principles as they existed before the outbreak of the present war.

The morning papers unite in expressing warm approval of the reply of the foreign secretary. The daily News says:
 "Europe is reeling into barbarism. The fault is not ours, but the position of the Washington government is none the easier for that."
 The Telegraph says:
 "Sir Edward Grey exposes the springs of British policy with a completeness which we believe will carry conviction in America. Whether to have used the tremendous weapon of sea power with every reasonable restraint, but by Germany's illegal and outrageous acts we stand defeated in our benevolent intention and now it only remains for the allies to announce the exact character of their measure to insure the economic pressure on the enemy."

SCHEDULES ARE TO BE MAINTAINED BY THE STEAMERS
 (ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
 London, Feb. 18.—The reply of Sir Edward Grey to the American note on the subject of seizure and detention of American cargoes destined for neutral European ports, German's threat of a submarine blockade of Great Britain and England's retaliatory measure against it, are absorbing the attention of the British public.
 Sir Edward Grey's long and carefully-considered reply concerning American complaints of delays to which her cargo ships have been subjected by the British navy, was much discussed, but naturally the German threat of a submarine blockade and Great Britain's preparations to counteract its effect were uppermost in the minds of ship owners and traders. As Germany has for some time been attempting to sink all British ships which her submarines could approach her blockade ultimatum has caused little alarm.
 All important shipping companies have announced that there will be no change in their regular sailings while British, French, and Belgian owned cross-channel steamers are maintaining their schedule. The Dutch company which maintains a mail service between Flushing and Folkestone has suspended sailings and there has been some talk of mail being carried by Dutch destroyers.

There has been no increase in insurance rates and in fact the government actually has reduced rates for fishing vessels at the same time having arranged to pay compensation to sailors who may be injured as a result of hostilities. There has been an increase in the price of coal and in coal freights, but this is due entirely from Italy, together with a shortage of ships.
 Notwithstanding its intense interest in the important questions which now involve shipping interests, England has not lost sight of the military operations now in progress on both fronts. The fighting in East Prussia and Bukovina, where the two extreme wings of the Russian army are heavily engaged by Austro-German forces, is considered the most important activity now going on either in the East or West. Petrograd dispatches insist that the Russians carried out in perfect order their retirement in East Prussia.

An important battle is raging in the vicinity of Augustowo, where in the fall the Russians succeeded in stopping a previous German attempt to invade Russia. Now, however, the Muscovites have a much more serious threat to deal with for East Prussia sent a new army into East Prussia and the Germans are in strong force in the district between East Prussia and the lower Vistula. Their continued advance there would jeopardize the Russians who are holding the trenches to the south of the Vistula and who succeeded in frustrating Field Marshal von Hindenburg's attempts to reach Warsaw from the west.
 The Germans plans are not quite clear, but it is believed probable that they still have their eyes on Warsaw and hope by taking that city to break the Russian power to resume the offensive so that they may be free to take more energetic steps against the allies in the west.
 Anticipating this possibility, the allies, during the past two days have made a vigorous attack against the Germans in Flanders and France. The outcome of this effort cannot be stated as the French and German reports are in direct conflict.

In Bukovina, the Austrians are reported to have partly surrounded the Russians before Czernowitz and the battle still is in progress and reinforcements are reaching the Russians who have the advantage of undamaged railroads both to this point and to Nadworna, further west, which the Austrians have reoccupied. The Russians report continued progress in the Carpathians.

GERMANS REPORT THE SINKING OF FOUR STEAMERS

(Associated Press Telegram) Buenos Aires, Argentine, Feb. 18.—The German steamer Holger which has arrived here brings news that during the months of January and February, the German auxiliary cruiser Crown Prince Wilhelm, operating on the Northern coast of Brazil, sank the British steamer Hemisphère, the British seamer Patara, the sailing ship Sumatra and the sailing ship Wilfred. The crews of these vessels are on board the Holger.

On the Holger there are also 51 passengers of the British steamer Highland Brae, a vessel of 7,634 tons belonging to the Nelson Steam Navigation company of London, which sailed from London Jan. 3 for Buenos Aires and which was sunk in the Atlantic by a German warship. In addition there are 36 members of the crew of the Highland Brae on board.

The crews of the other vessels given as having been sent to the bottom apparently also were saved, for the Holger has on board 27 from the Hemisphère, 47 from the Patara, 22 from the Sumatra and seven from Wilfred.

Ask Something Easy.

There is one thing that has always refused to coze through my noodle," remarked Jasper Knox, the sage of Picketown-on-the-Blink, "and that is this: If, as the newspapers would make us believe, all brides are beautiful, where in Sam Hill do all the homely married women come from?"—Judge.

GRANVILLIANS IN ATTENDANCE AT GREAT GAME

Residents of College City Out in Force—Newsy Notes From Hustling Little Western Neighbor.

(Special to The Advocate) Granville, Feb. 18.—All entertainments gave place to the great basketball game last evening in Cleveland hall, between Denison and the Buffalo Germans, who have held the world championship. The hall was packed with spectators who felt the tenseness of the struggle. Last year the Eastern team was not expecting defeat from an almost unheard of foe in the middle west; last night they were ready for the Big Red team, which has been so wonderfully successful all season. But even so, the score was a close one, and would have been even closer had the Buffalo brave who made the last basket, pocketed it the mere fraction of instant later, as the closing pistol shot rang out almost simultaneously. It was not a kid glove struggle, and many hard knocks were given and taken. The home team was outplayed but put up a good fight and showed fine spirit. The score was 36-33 in favor of the visitors.

Mrs. C. B. Newton of Bowling Green and her hostess, Mrs. R. S. Colwell were honor guests at dinner at the home of Prof. and Mrs. M. E. Stickney, last evening in South Prospect street. They also occupied the seats of honor at a little supper party after the game at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Case, where covers were laid for Mrs. Colwell, Mrs. Newton, Prof. and Mrs. C. D. Coons, Prof. and Mrs. M. E. Stickney, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Darrow, Prof. Victor Hoppe, Miss Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Case.

Prof. W. H. Johnson leaves today for Pittsburgh, where he will be one of the speakers at the Pittsburgh-Denison club banquet Friday evening.

Miss Margaret Judson, dean of Shephardson College, who has been confined to her room with an attack of grip, is still unable to meet her classes, though slowly improving.

Mrs. W. P. Ullman is leader of the Women's Music club program for next week, which promises to be of great interest.

Mrs. Theodore Johnson, Miss Gail Smith and Miss Ruth Rockwood, who sang in concert in the Mt. Gilead Opera House last evening, arrived home this morning. One of the audience who was privileged to be present, reports an artistic success on the part of the performers and great responsiveness on the part of the delighted audience. Mrs. Johnson was in splendid voice and perhaps the hit of the evening was her rendering of Allister's "Unto Thy Heart," with violin obligato by Miss Smith, and piano accompaniment by Miss Rockwood. Mrs. Johnson's voice is at its best in this number, and all three artists were in the closest accord.

The entertainment committee of the Social Union will give an illustrated lecture on the Old Trail's Road which extends from Washington, D. C. to the Pacific Coast. Motorists will be specially interested in these historic views and scenes along the great highway leading west. There will be music by a three piece orchestra before and after the lecture which will be delivered by Prof. V. H. Hoppe in Recital Hall, next Tuesday evening, February 23.

The public is invited to the Denison Orchestra concert this evening at 8:00 o'clock in Recital Hall. This is a fine aggregation of home talent and under Dean Eschman's efficient leadership is doing splendid work.

A special train to Delaware carrying rooters to the Wesleyan-Denison game will leave Granville about 3:30 Saturday afternoon, February 27, returning at 11:30 in the evening. All who wish to take this train sign up at Ullman's. One hundred and seventy-five passengers are required.

PRaise FOR THE PAROLE SYSTEM IN CALIFORNIA

(Associated Press Telegram) Sacramento, Calif., Feb. 18.—"The parole system is the most valuable agency in rehabilitation," says the biennial report of the state board of prison directors made public today.

There are 764 prisoners on parole from California's two penitentiaries. "Twenty-two per cent of the men paroled in the last two years," says the report, "are classed as failures, but only four per cent committed new crimes, the remaining 18 per cent having committed petty offenses."

Meetings Will End Sunday at Fairmount Church

The Fairmount church has been having a blessed time for the last four weeks. The pastor with the aid of Mr. A. R. Evans has been conducting services that have been very beneficial not only to the members of the church but also to a large number who have confessed their need of, and faith in the Christ.

The special meetings will end Sunday. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed Sunday morning, and it is the special desire of the pastor and session that every member, and even former members so far as possible, attend this service to rejoice in the good done in the community. Evening services will also be held, thus ending a series of revival meetings that have already been used urgently for the salvation of souls.

How Can I Make My Hair Thick and Long?

Facts for Dandruff Sufferers.

Just why people suffering from dandruff and thin hair persist in using tonics, creasy oils, sulphur or some other freaky remedy to regain good hair, is a question hard to explain unless it is due to ignorance of the real cause of dandruff. The dandruff germ will not leave the scalp until the inside hair root is clean and healthy enough to let the hair grow as Nature willed.

Our great modern chemists have at last given us a long needed remedy by perfecting "Wildroot" prescription. "Wildroot" is surprisingly quick, for the very first applications bring a rain of dandruff from the scalp on coming, proving that its heating, cooling vegetable oils are sinking into the irritated hair roots, (that hair tonics or sulphur fail to reach) and giving new life to the waste-clogged follicles or pores in which the hair strands are seated.

"Wildroot" does not contain any acid or alkali to make the hair dry and brittle nor is it like the glycerine tonics, which dissolve and glue the dandruff to the hair strands and never heal the root. A big bottle of "wildroot" at any druggist's will not cost much and the chemists who make it guarantee perfect satisfaction or money back.
